How to leave a planned gift to United Way Durham Region in your will

A bequest is the most common type of planned gift. This can be a sum of money, a piece of property or a percentage of your estate that is designated to United Way Durham Region in your will. Other types of planned gifts also include RRSPs/RRIFs, life insurance, stocks/securities, charitable remainder trusts and gifts-in-kind.

If you have special wishes regarding how you would like to personalize and design your bequest or other planned gift, please contact us — we would be pleased to help.

In Memoriam Gifts

In memoriam or “in memory” donations are a wonderful way to honour or remember a loved one who’s passed away, while making an important impact right here in our community. In lieu of flowers, we will provide a beautiful card to the family or directly to you — or arrange for cards to be available at the funeral home — making an in memoriam gift easy for friends and family. Please contact us if you would like help in setting up an In Memoriam Donation to honour your loved one.

Gifts of Life Insurance

The gift of life insurance provides a unique opportunity to make a positive impact in the future while receiving tax benefits today. It allows you to make a long-term investment while preserving the value of your estate for your loved ones. Choosing to give the gift of life insurance means the proceeds of the policy are paid directly to United Way Durham Region and remain in our region.

Transferring ownership to United Way Durham Region:

- Give an already paid-up policy and receive a donation receipt for the cash value of the policy.
- Give an existing policy on which premiums are still being paid and receive a receipt for the cash value of the policy and subsequent premium payments.

United Way Durham Region as a benefactor:

Name ‘United Way Durham Region’ as the beneficiary of your policy and a donation receipt will be issued to your estate which can be claimed in your final tax return.
